A light frost was reported in this locality yesterday.

General alarm now prevails in New Orleans over yellow fever.

The initial number of the Clover Democrat is expected to appear in this city Saturday.

President McKinley, like all other presidents, seems to enjoy an outing now and then. He is off now from Washington until October 1.

Hon. W. J. Bryan will visit the Nashville Exposition October 8, and thence come into Kentucky, where he will make a number of speeches.

The Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church South at the M. C. Sterling meeting, held at Henderson, Ky., on Monday, Sept. 16, 1907.

County Chairman Miller is in receipt of a number of sample ballots for the election of voters. Those who vote the Fusion ticket should study this ballot carefully.

The News has fought for Democracy for twenty-one years, and good times and bad, and all along the line. What boots it, therefore, if some of the kids get to spoiling about party loyalty.

Congressman Howard, of Alabama, made a speech out at Hardinsburg the other day that captured the crowd. It was popular throughout, down in line style and made to catch votes for Joe Parker.

It is the lot of all good Democrats to get in line. Go out and hear the candidates. Take them home with you and break bread with them. Be kind to the good bugs and all such, as run after trange doctrine.

The crops in Western Ireland are almost a failure and almost a famine is threatened. Nothing like a food famine was ever threatened in this country yet we complain awfully of a drought of a few months.

The postoffice at Hardinsburg is soon to change hands. The appointment of Mr. Marcus Winslow, an announcement from Washington last Saturday and Joseph Cox will now step down and out. Joe has made a good official.

Is there anything in speaking the loudest note in the office hunting crowd to knock the permission in the rounds this week. There are some men on orators following the procession, and don't you forget it.

Out at Hardinsburg last Monday the crowd was treated to a good speech from Judge Miliken, instead of the announcements by the county candidates Judge Miliken had good attendance while he occupied the rostrum, but the applause was very mild. Mild indeed. Hon. D. R. Murray replied to Judge Miliken and then the boys warmed up. It was decidedly a silver crowd.

We understand that there are some parties in the county, Democrats by the way, who feel inclined to question the Democracy of the News. Well now let's not worry while. Healy it isn't. We are here to stay you know and to fight it out on the same old line. Twenty-one years in the harness ought to convince any one of its utility. Just read it. If you please, our three columns from William Jennings Bryan, in another place, and see how that strikes you. Democracy indeed. Well the critics may just go along. The News will take care of its Democracy just the same.

The Republicans have called a convention to meet at West Point next week to put out a candidate for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney in this Judicial District. We don't know to whom the honors may fall, nor will we make any difference so far as results go in November. McBeath will run two to one ahead of any man in the district for Judicial honors, when the polls open and it would seem a waste of time to put one against him. Chaff for Commonwealth's Attorney is acceptable likewise and will be elected. So the convention storm had as well be called off.

AGITATION now of the silver question or in fact any question relating to the currency is a waste of energy and of ink and paper. If times improve, it seems to us to do no under the present system, which must prevail for years at least, it is the height of folly to howl in delirious strain and try to make the people believe that things are not what they seem. Let us give the present order of affairs a fair trial and if they prove what their champions claim for them, let us accept them in good faith and surrender any pretense of opinion that we might have had with reference to the true value of silver or any other question relating to a decided change in the financial system (give us a rest and peace for the time being) and let the day of the day be all over. CASTORIA.
The little girl, who was in the city, is in the city.

Some time ago a difficulty occurred at West Point between William Watson, white, and Sel Helms, colored, in the dispute of that place, over some trivial matter. Watson was seriously cut and Helms made his escape and never returned to West Point until the other day. Helms was lying on the doorstep in front of the depot. Watson discovered him there and immediately went and procured a pistol and, walking up to Helms, shot him through the arm-pit. This took place about 3 o'clock Sunday evening. Helms will not likely recover. Watson made his escape.

River News.
Boats are all making good time.

Clover Creek is certainly confined to its bed.

Good many from here have visited Tolingport Sunday.

Three feet water in channel from Louisville to Henderson.

There are four or five slanty boats along the river bank.

Did you know the river is so low that it is confined to its bed?

The boats are all enjoying good trips, both passengers and freight.

All Tolingport freight is still being handled at the Cloverport wharf.

To get a taste of the cold wind, go to the wharf some breezy day.

Mr. Tarnum came into town last port, Sunday after dinner, with a very light trip.

G. C. Whitehead shipped to Louisville market Sunday. Sir. Tarnum, 100 barrels of apples.

The Tarazon unloaded last Saturday 50 bags of navy beans for our merchants. All wheatly hand-picked.

There was such a whirlwind at the wharf Sunday that most of persons could hardly stand on their feet.

The woods at the point of the river near Lillard's farm caught fire Monday from the sparks of a freight train.

Belle brothers should investigate the bed of Clover Creek. Possibly something very valuable would be secured.

The best low water in the trade is said to be the Tarazon. She can carry good trips on thirty inches of water.

Our city fathers should repair the levee if not mistaken, the levee cut the city something near $2000. United States attention is to be given it, it will shortly have to be rebuilt anyway.

Sep. Jay Bird' eye was the latest. All right boys.

The E. G. Eagon is a bulky boat. With him in command he will reach all Bishop in a brand new coat.

An all-round latest news.

Tutt's Liver Pills

an absolute cure.

Probably not known too many of our readers, but the really true fact is that there is no other medicine of great value than the one that is in this list of objects, which, by the way, revealed quite a good deal of news concerning the river, and previously has been of great value.

Since then, until recently, when this "good" met up with "day long" a similar character who is connected with one of the steamers on the river. From all accounts this "good" had after his usual breakfast "old tin cans" through mistake, swallowed a box of Cook's purgative pills which had rendered him helpless ever since, in the way of being any assistance to the river man. He is gradually getting better and better, and is much improved next week.

The candidates all started out again Monday, over the county. They will land in this city Saturday.
